Murder Mystery Evening

The Mystery of the Poisoned Mince Pie

It is December 1949. And it is snowing. Vera Ginn is planning a comeback and has invited Picturegoer Magazine to come to her country house for a photo shoot. However, after the guests arrive, the snow falls more heavily and they are trapped in the house. As secrets from her past are gradually revealed, it is not long before someone needs to be silenced. The help of the audience is enlisted by the detective who has trawled through the snow to solve the dastardly murder.

Acted by the Cambridge Murder Mystery Society, a series of clues will help lead you to identify who, where, when and how!

This very special evening also includes canapes and a glass of fizz on arrival, plus a special prize for the winning team.
